

Short CV: Dr Rob Collins

Dr Rob Collins graduated with MBBCh from the University of Witwatersrand in 1993. He had 10 years of experience as a general practitioner in the southern suburbs of Johannesburg before deciding to study sports medicine. He obtained an MSC in sports medicine from Pretoria University in 2007. He has since established the southern suburbs branch of Sports Concussion South Africa, and was involved in establishing the southern suburbs sports medicine multi forum – a multi-disciplinary group providing CPD meetings to sports physicians, physiotherapists, biokineticists, chiropractors, podiatrists, and GPs from the area. He is a lecturer in the Section Sports Medicine at the University of Pretoria, where he is involved in assisting with research, lecturing, and examining of post-graduate sports medicine students. He was appointed as The Golden Lions Rugby Union's team doctor from the 2010 Super 14 season. He also works as a sports physician at Mondeor Medical Centre in Mondeor, Johannesburg.
